7 PM - UNTIL VICTORY DECLARED

April 5, 2016
10 BOOKS THAT CHANGED THE WORLD

A HISTORY SOAPBOX EVENT
Everybody's got an opinion, but on this night the people will decide: what book changed everything? Leaping on to the soapbox, 10 historians will let it rip, and say what they think. They only get six minutes each, and when the clock's out, the jury will vote. Come out for this fun, informative, and quite likely unbalanced event: where else are you going to get that much enlightenment, that fast—and meet lots of other people, besides?

Sponsored by the Department of History and the Center for Historical Interpretation

Students and Faculty sometimes Think They Know Which Book Really Changed the World

ONLY ONE OF THEM CAN BE RIGHT!

1092 Lincoln Hall