Required Pattern by the End of Sophomore Year:*

HIST 141
HIST 142*
HIST 171 or HIST 172* (both are required for the major)
Additional required history, preferably HIST 200

(A non-history major must complete HIST 200 in third semester in order to declare history major Spring semester before applying to the Secondary Minor Program.)

PS 101*
SOC 100*
STAT 100*
EPS 201
EPSY 201 (prerequisite PSYC 100)

One of the following (all are required for the major):
ANTH 143 (only offered in the fall)
ECON 102
ECON 103 (should be taken before ECON 102)

Recommended Social Science First-Year Plan
(if Language other than English requirement completed in high school¹)

Fall (16/17 hours)
RHET 105² or PS 101
HIST 100
LAS 101 (required)
HIST 141 or HIST 171
STAT 100
ANTH 143

Spring (16/17 hours)
RHET 105² or PS 101
PSYC 100
PS 100
HIST 142 or HIST 172
ECON 103

¹ If you did not have four years of the same language other than English in high school, take the required language requirement in the fall and subsequent semesters in place of one of the non-history requirements above. Note: you will probably need to make up these courses in summer school.
² If you have AP credit (4 or 5) for English Language and Composition or UIUC Proficiency Credit, you will have earned four hours credit for Rhetoric 105. If you have AP credit (4 or 5) for English Literature and Composition, you will have earned four hours credit for Rhetoric 105 and three hours credit for English 110, which meets the Literature and the Arts general education requirement. If you have earned Rhetoric credit and do not need additional foreign language, take SOC 100 in the Spring semester.
