History Minor (Fall 2004–Fall 2008)

Name: ________________________________________________________________

UIN: ___________________________________________________________________

Net ID: __________________________________________________________________

Date: ___________________________________________________________________

First Area (9 hours): □ US □ European □ Nonwestern

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

Second Area (6 hours): □ US □ European □ Nonwestern

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

Electives (6 hours):

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

HIST 200: Introduction to Historical Interpretation (may be counted in Areas):

Topic: ________________________________

Professor: ________________________________

Semester: ________________________________

☐ 21 total hours required

☐ Maximum of 6 hours of 100 level may be used

☐ Minimum of 6 hours advanced (300/400 level) courses at Illinois (with permission of Undergraduate Academic Advisor, 3 hours may be study abroad)